Saving water in the Black Isle? Really?

Make small changes today to start saving water, energy and money.

Making small changes to our behaviour every day can have a big impact. That's why Scottish Water is working in partnership with Home Energy Scotland and Transition Black Isle to encourage people who live in the Black Isle to use water wisely.

To help you save water, energy and money we are giving FREE water efficiency packs to residents in and around the Black Isle.

Pick up a FREE water efficiency pack from a Home Energy Scotland advisor on:
