Fairtrade Fortnight 27th February - 12th March 2023 – FOOD
Trade Justice and Climate Justice

live more sustainably

Locally - What is happening?

1. Once again the bridge in Inverness will be lit up for 3 days (27th, 28th Feb and 1st March) in Fairtrade colours –BLUE and GREEN. Watch out for the press release and please mention it to your friends to spread awareness.
2. Eden Court will be showing this 3 minute Fairtrade film before all films during the 2 weeks. It is well worth a watch as it illustrates the links between Fairtrade and the climate emergency. Here is the link <https://youtu.be/0xQP6tVlcxg>
3. Eden Court Youth Drama group are also preparing to perform a Fairtrade message which will be performed for family and friends at the end of term.
4. For churches and other groups try the Quiz (right). If we care about our environment, see why using Fairtrade items can make a difference.
5. We have given Bad Girls Bakery (in Victorian Market) and the Cathedral Tea Room some Fairtrade sugar, chocolate, bananas, tea and coffee to use in their baking during Fairtrade Fortnight. Let's all seek them out! (Bad Girls will do this between 3rd and 5th March)

Nationally, a programme - including a session for teachers, a Fairtrade set of activities for Early Years, Primary and secondary, community links with Malawi growers and much more - is available via www.scottishfairtradeforum.org.uk/news/ and look for Fairtrade Fortnight 2023.

Fairtrade – a way to support those who have done the least to cause Climate Change but are most impacted by it. Fairtrade brings Social Justice into the Environmental arena.

Let's all buy a Fairtrade product to help people to help themselves and cope with the climate related issues they face. Whether it's a flowers for our homes or a cup of tea at a club / society we belong to – a walking club, a gardening group, birdwatching, sailing, cycling, photography. Fairtrade is a positive way to make a difference to people's lives.
