The GALE Gardening Group at Good for Ewe at Inverasdale is up and running again from 10 - 12 noon on Tuesdays mornings! This group includes parents and children and is for anyone with an interest in growing outdoors or in the polytunnel. We are still growing lettuces, leeks, broccoli and much more! We have big plans for growing tasty fresh food for the table. Usually, an hour or two in the garden is followed up by a cuppa and some cake or scones, so it is very sociable and everyone is welcome!

Exhibitions 2019 – Would you like to exhibit your work in The GALE Centre?

We are now in the process of planning exhibitions for 2019 at the GALE Centre and we are keen to encourage new local artists and craftspeople to join us this year!

So, if you are local to the Gairloch and Loch Ewe area and have not exhibited with us before why not get in touch.

There is no charge for the exhibition space, but we take a small commission on sales.

We provide exhibition boards with picture hangers, and a table if needed.

Exhibitions are for one month and we will do all the advertising, including posters, Facebook, GALE website and the GALE page in the local paper.

We look forward to hearing from some new talent! To discuss the options contact Rose on rose@galeteam.co.uk, telephone 01445 712071 or pop by the GALE Centre.
