GALE Gardening Group; Tuesday mornings, 10 – 12pm

The GALE Gardening Group at Good for Ewe at Inverasdale is up and running again from 10 - 12 noon on Tuesdays mornings! This group includes parents and children and is for anyone with an interest in growing outdoors or in the polytunnel. We are still growing lettuces, leeks, broccoli and much more! We have big plans for growing tasty fresh food for the table. Usually, an hour or two in the garden is followed up by a cuppa and some cake or scones, so it is very sociable and everyone is welcome!

Please contact Jenni for any further information or just come along! jenni@galeteam.co.uk

Exhibitions 2019 – Would you like to exhibit your work in The GALE Centre?

We are now in the process of planning exhibitions for 2019 at the GALE Centre and we are keen to encourage new local artists and craftspeople to join us this year! So, if you are local to the Gairloch and Loch Ewe area and have not exhibited with us before why not get in touch. There is no charge for the exhibition space, but we take a small commission on sales. Exhibitions are for one month and we will do all the advertising, including posters, Facebook, GALE website and the GALE page in the local paper.

We look forward to hearing from some new talent! To discuss the options contact Rose on rose@galeteam.co.uk, telephone 01445 712071 or pop by the GALE Centre

Russian Arctic Convoy Project

Local charity, the Russian Arctic Convoy Project (RACP) have ambitious ideas to grow and develop their Exhibition Centre. They have recently raised the funds to complete the purchase of the building in Aultbea and now as owners of the premises they are working on plans to renovate and extend their Exhibition Centre. This is an exciting and busy time for the RACP Board of volunteer Directors. To help free up some of their time so that they can concentrate on the challenging job of planning the renovation project, they have invited GALE to manage the Exhibition Centre for them during 2019.

We are delighted to have been given this task and are very much looking forward to working in partnership with RACP over the year ahead. The Exhibition Centre fits well with our vision of making the Gairloch and Loch Ewe area a better place for people of all abilities to live, work and thrive. It is already providing sustainable employment and volunteering opportunities for local people and we look forward to working with RACP to further develop these opportunities.

There are already lots of ways to get involved and support the project from volunteering, sharing your stories of the convoys, becoming a member of RACP or joining the staff team. Check out our recruitment advertisement on p??? or contact janet@galeteam.co.uk to find out more.
